

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ) COVID Microenterprise Loan Program

The Towns of Edgartown, Aquinnah, Chilmark, Oak Bluffs, West Tisbury, Vineyard Haven and Dennis have engaged The Resource Inc. (TRI) to administer this new regional Micro-Enterprise Forgivable Loan Program in support of the continued operation or re-opening of micro businesses that are dealing with the negative economic impacts of the COVID- 19 pandemic.

The goal of this program is to make funds available to micro businesses disrupted by the COVID-19 pandemic until they are able to access the other programs and/or restore revenue streams and cash flow.

Forgivable loans of up to $10,000 for business expenses such as working capital, rent, staffing, utilities, technical assistance, general support and stabilization of the business. This loan is forgivable after issued when the business provides documentation that the funds have been spent in accordance with the presented budget and the owner certifies that they have not received nor will they receive funds for these expenses from other funding programs.

REVIEW PROCESS:

How are applications being reviewed and evaluated?

Completed applications will be reviewed on a first come, first served basis. Completed applications must include the submitted online application, completed dated and signed (where indicated all required forms (also on the website) and all supporting documentation, personal and business (see Required documentation check list). Completed application packets will be reviewed to determine the business and owner meet all the eligibility requirements as defined by the terms of the loan and questions #10-22 of the Full Loan Application.

Are there limitations on the number of businesses per town that can be awarded?

Initially, there will be a 20 business per town limit for the first three months. Applications will be evaluated on a first come, first served basis per town. After the first three months the process will open to all towns on a first come, first served basis until all the funding has been expended.

APPROVAL:

Once your full application packet has been reviewed you will be informed by your assigned TRI Program Manager (PM). If you are not eligible: your TRI PM will review with the reasons. If you are approved, you will receive a Conditional Award Letter via email. You must read, print, sign, scan and return the letter within in seven business days. This indicates your acceptance of the terms and conditions. If you are unable to print and scan, you must still reply to the email your acceptance and a hard copy letter will be forwarded to you by USPS for you to sign and return. Your TRI PM will guide through this process.

FORGIVENESS:

How is my loan forgiven? You must provide bills/invoices and the respective receipts showing proof of payment from the business for the expenses presented in the Proposed Use of Funds Form. Reimbursable expenses and receipts should be presented prior to the loan close to ensure the expense match the amounts presented and that they are eligible expenses. Similarly, if you plan to use the funds as indicated on the Proposed Use of Funds for future expenses (up to 3 months forward), please provide the bills/invoice and proof of payment. The check will be mailed directly to you in approximately 6-8 weeks. Please forward a copy of the check to your TRI representative. Once all the criteria for forgiveness is met, you will receive Documentation of Forgiveness and Verification of Expenses Paid.

How much time do I have to spend the forgivable loan? You have up to 90 days with a potential for extension if arrangements are made.
